

PULLMAN IS QUIET;
NOT A WHEEL TURNSNO ATTEMPT TO RUN THE WORKS TO-DAY.

Defeat of Yesterday Led the Managers To Defer Action for a Day or Two—Allen Paper Car Wheel Factory Was Not Started as Had Been Planned.

PULLMAN, July 24.—The situation today is unchanged. The works are idle although enough men have been engaged to run some departments. The Pullman company made its first important effort yesterday to start up its works, and failed signally. It had been announced with some show of courage that the Allen Paper Car Wheel company would begin operations yesterday. These shops are part and parcel of the Pullman company plant and it was believed that if they could be opened with their full force of men much would be done to break the force of the strike. The effort was made yesterday. The result is that literally the Pullman works are running; practically they are as dead as they have been at any time during the last month.

PRESIDENT DEBS MAKES REPLY.
Says that the American Railway Union Is a Defensive Organization.

CHICAGO, July 24.—An answer was filed to-day by the attorneys for officers of the American Railway Union in the contempt proceedings in the United States court, growing out of the alleged violation of the federal injunction against interference with the mails and interstate commerce. The answer, in substance, is as follows:

Defendants admit that on the 23d day of July, 1894, the United States of America caused to be filed in the office of the clerk of said court for said district a certain complaint or bill in equity.

"They admit that on said day a certain writ of injunction was issued by the order of said court upon said bill, and that a copy of the order of said court directing that such writ of injunction be issued is attached to the complainant's information herein.

"They admit that the American Railway Union is a voluntary association of which many thousand employees were at the time of filing said bill and still are members.

"They allege that the purpose of said American Railway Union was the protection of all its members in their rights and interests as employees of the various railway systems of the United States, and to procure by all lawful and legitimate means fair, reasonable and adequate compensation for all its said members for the service performed.

"They deny that it was the purpose and object of said American Railway Union of the officers or directors thereof, to concentrate the power and jurisdiction of said American Railway Union under one official management, and they allege that by the organization of said American Railway Union strikes could be ordered or discontinued only by the majority of the members of such union employed in the service affected by any such strike and that the only power, authority or office of the said officers or directors of said American Railway Union was to notify the members of said American Railway Union in the service concerned in said strike of the action taken by such majority.

"They deny that on the 26th or 27th day of June last, or at any other time, the American Railway Union or its board of directors had directed and ordered the members of said American Railway Union engaged in the service of the Illinois Central Railroad company to leave the service of said company, as alleged in said information."

The defendants deny that said employees so leaving the service of said railway companies, as aforesaid, did so for the purpose of hindering, preventing and delaying said railway companies in the operation of trains engaged in the transportation of the United States mails and interstate commerce over the respective roads of said companies.

The defendants deny that Debs or any other of them sent any of the telegrams quoted in the complaint, save one telegram quoted in full in the answer.

All the other telegrams are said to have been without their knowledge or approval.

It was just 12 o'clock when Mr. Erwin concluded reading the answer. He then made the formal motion that the defendants be dismissed. The defense would hold, he said, that as the proceedings was a criminal case and that in such cases the answer by the defendants was final—the information was not amendable. The defense would insist also, Mr. Erwin said, that counsel for the government elect now whether it would try the defendants on the indictment or on the injunction. Both proceedings issued from the same sovereignty, related to the same facts and it would not be law, equity or justice to punish a man twice for the same offense. The court would be called on to construe some of the telegrams presented in the information, and this could not be done unless the court were fully informed as to the circumstances when the telegrams were written.

ten. The court should have, therefore, at least a partial hearing of the merits of the case. The argument of the defense, Mr. Erwin said, would be directed to a considerable extent against the jurisdiction of the court.

Judge Wood replied that he did not think it would be necessary to direct the government to elect as to its course. If they went on with the trial now the result might be pleaded as a bar to further trial. The government could elect by going on now.

The case will not be concluded before to-morrow at the latest.

TOWNS SEE MENACE IN THE FIRE

Heavy Rains Can Alone Prevent Much Destruction of Property.

DULUTH, Minn., July 24.—Forest fires are getting worse and now threaten to destroy the crops and buildings of hundreds of farmers scattered through the woods near this city. Yesterday the fire department was called out to protect farm property and is still at work. The fires run in the stubble and timber with terrible rapidity. Heavy and continuous rains are the only thing that will save hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property of farmers in this vicinity.

VIRGINIA, Minn., July 24.—A forest fire has been raging in this vicinity for the last twenty-four hours. Virginia was entirely surrounded by fire yesterday and barely escaped destruction. The engine house of the Lone Jack mine with a large amount of cordwood was totally destroyed. The forest is still on fire and the fire companies are using every effort to keep the fire out of the town. Fires are reported down the lines of the Mesaba & Northern railway. All the Mesaba range towns are located in the forests and unless it rains soon serious damage will result.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., July 24.—The bridge on the Omaha railroad above Spooner was burned last evening by forest fires, delaying the Duluth train several hours. The forest fires are reported as raging furiously in the northern part of the state once more, the rains of last week having been insufficient to put them out entirely. Around West Superior great damage is feared, several small towns being threatened.

Storming Iowa Sky for Rain.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, July 24.—Rain-maker Jewell of the Rock Island road accepted the $400 offer from Fort Dodge for a five-day supply of chemicals with instructions how to use. A representative met him in Harrison, Kan., Saturday and got full instructions and returned. The chemicals were mixed immediately and the interesting rainmaking process begins to-night. This entire section of the state is eagerly watching the developments and hoping for results which will save the crops.

Wild Man Leaves Trail of Death.

VANDALIA, Ill., July 24.—News from Beck's Creek, Loudon township, is to the effect the supposed wild man has been playing havoc with young calves, pigs and lambs in that vicinity. Carcasses of calves and lambs have been found along the creek where it is thought his abode is. A party of twenty-five or thirty will go out this week to search for him.

Attempt to Break Jail at Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., July 24.—A desperate attempt to escape from the county jail was made by four prisoners in ward 2 yesterday afternoon. Two escaped and are still at liberty. Fifty Lashes for Whisky Seller.

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 24.—George B. Herron, the owner of a quart whisky shop in Burneys Station, fourteen miles east of here, was whitecapped late last night. TROOPS FOR STOCK YARDS.

Major McFadden Asks Reinforcements to His Command.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Major McFadden of the Sixth regiment, I. N. G., commanding the troops now doing guard duty in the stock yards, has made a request to his commanding officer, Col. D. J. Forter, asking that more companies from the Sixth regiment be sent to the stock yards at once. Major McFadden and Lieut. Halsey have decided that an increase of guards is necessary. Train men at work in the yards demand the protection of the soldiers.

JAPS WERE VICTORS
IN A BATTLE TO-DAY.COREAN'S DEFEATED AND A TROOP BOAT SUNK.

Chinese Instigated the Peninsula Forces To Attack a Garrison, and War Ships Were Brought Into Action—Loaded Transport Was Sunk in the Engagement.

SHANGHAI, July 24.—Dispatches say that the Korean troops at the instigation of Chinese residents attacked a Japanese garrison today and were defeated. A later dispatch says that one Japanese cruiser was engaged and sunk a Chinese transport with many troops on board. It is generally believed here that Japan does not desire pacific settlement of the Korean dispute. As evidence of this, attention is called to the fact that as soon as one difficulty is overcome, Japan immediately raises another. The latest attitude of the king of Korea in the crisis is supposed to be due to China's decided measure to insist on its claims to sovereignty over the Korean peninsula. The reports that France and Russia will support Japan against China are pronounced to be absolutely groundless.

Communication with Pekin, which was interrupted by the floods, has been restored. The report that war had been declared between China and Japan was premature, although the outlook is more threatening.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE.

One Outcome of the Contest Between Citizens and the Rock Island.

WICHITA, Kan., July 24.—J. C. Moore, mayor of South Elid, Ok., the scene of the present disturbances between citizens and the Rock Island railway, has forwarded to the secretary of war charges and specifications against Capt. Mackey, in command of the federal troops there. The specifications allege that Capt. Mackey and his men went to the home of Charles L. Sherer in the night, took him out of bed, and threatened to hang him if he would not divulge the names of the party who fired at a corporal in Mackey's command. He also alleges that Capt. Mackey and his men threatened to kill A. R. Elliott if he would not divulge the identity of persons implicated in burning bridges.

Gov. Tillman Will Defy the Courts.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 24.—For several days Gov. Tillman has been threatening on the stump to reopen the dispensaries despite the fact that April 19 last the Supreme court declared the 1892 law unconstitutional. Gov. Tillman declared the decision meant absolute prohibition. Yesterday, after a canvass of the counties of the state as to whether they would sustain his action or not, he issued a proclamation declaring the 1892 law still in force and fixing Aug. 1 as the date for opening the dispensaries. Good lawyers say he lays himself liable to impeachment.

GROVER ON A GRILL
A HOT SPECTACLE.GORMAN'S ROAST HAS STIRRED
ALL WASHINGTON.

No Answer Yet Made—Denunciation of the President's Letter as Uncalled For Was But One Feature of the Tirade—Senate Left in the Lurch—The Compromise.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—After the completion yesterday of the preliminary routine business at 12:22 o'clock Senator Voorhees called up the conference report on the tariff bill and then the storm broke. Senator Gorman immediately arose. He hoped he appreciated the gravity of the situation, he began. Ordinarily the situation would be easy of solution. There would ordinarily be no difference of opinion about sending the bill to conference where the difference between the two houses could be adjusted. He drew a graphic picture of the anxiety with which the country awaited the fate of the bill, the idle factories, the closed workshops and the unemployed. Further suspense was neither to the best interests of the country nor of the democratic party. He hoped that the senators would meet the situation as became patriotic men and duty-bound democrats. It was idle for him, he said, to add anything to what had been said last Friday by the senator from New Jersey [Smith].

In the house there was an overwhelming democratic majority. Here in the senate the democrats were at the outset confronted with the fact that there were but forty-four democrats. A bill must be framed which would secure the support of all these senators, all of whose votes, save one, were necessary to pass it. That one vote was lost. The senator from New York [Hill] had from the beginning opposed the bill, openly and manfully. The democrats, faced with such a condition, had gone manfully to work to harmonize the differences and had accomplished it by many sacrifices—almost at the sacrifice of principle. No legislative body in this country had ever been confronted with such a condition. The representatives of the states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland at the outset announced that the house bill was so radical, so destructive of the interests of the people, that they would not support it.

He paid a high tribute to Senators Vest, Jones, Voorhees and Harris, those brave men whose labours work had at last accomplished the feat of adjusting these differences and had made the passage of any bill possible.

Then in dramatic tones he delivered his defiance. The infamous calumnies heaped upon the heads of the senate forced from his lips, he said, a plain, unvarnished statement of the facts. He would make it with malice toward none, but he would look his colleagues and the American people in the eye and tell the truth. In patriotism the democrats of the senate had gone to work to save the country and keep their party in power, when suddenly in the midst of the struggle came the President's letter.

"It was the most uncalled for, the most extraordinary, most unwise communication," said he in bitter tones, "that ever came from a President of the United States. It places this body in a position where its members must see to it that the dignity and honor of this chamber must be preserved. It places me in a position where I must tell the story as it occurred. The limit of endurance has been reached."

Mr. Gorman then proceeded to detail the history of the tariff bill after it reached the senate and the manner in which to reach the objections and secure the support of certain disaffected democrats the changes had been agreed upon. He stated emphatically that during the progress of this work Messrs. Vest and Jones had frequent conferences with Secretary Carlisle and oftentimes with President Cleveland himself. No material sacrifice of principles was made. The result was as he had declared on a previous occasion, a democratic measure which, in his opinion, leaned toward the radical tariff reform sentiment, and which he thought would receive the support of a democratic house, senate and president. He believed then, as he believed now, that he had authority for that statement. He charged directly that every one of the senate amendments had been seen by Secretary Carlisle and scanned by him before they were agreed upon. He drew from his desk and had read an interview with Secretary Carlisle on April 30, in which the secretary of the treasury gave the same bill his sweeping endorsement.

Mr. Gorman then referred to the statement in the Washington Post purporting to come from Senator Harris and asked the Tennessee statesman to give his version of the understanding with the President. Mr. Harris, who had come down from the presiding officer's chair for the purpose, then took the floor and said he and Senator Jones of Arkansas had had an interview with the President in which the latter had seemed to agree to the bill as the best measure likely to be obtained. He concluded: "My distinct understanding of that interview was that the President desired that we pass the bill as it passed the senate if we could make no better terms. He was decidedly in favor of its passing in this form if the senate would not recede. He hoped that we could in some way agree to put coal and iron on the free list, but I told him that it was impossible, and my understanding is that the President was decidedly in favor of passing the bill as it passed the senate if no better terms could be made."

Mr. Gorman then said: "I want to ask the senator from Tennessee whether in any of those interviews the suggestion was made to him from that quarter that the taxes placed on coal and iron were a violation of democratic principles and perjury to the democratic party?"

"No suggestion has ever been made to me by the President nor any members of the cabinet, nor by any human being," replied Mr. Harris slowly and impressively.

The senate shortly after went into executive session and soon adjourned.

TALK ABOUT A CAUCUS.

Democratic Leaders Discuss a Proposition for a General Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Immediately after the adjournment of the senate yesterday there was a conference of the Democratic leaders of that body in the room of the committee on appropriations. Among those were Senators Gorman, Brice, Cockrell, Harris, Ransom and Blackburn, comprising most of the democratic steering committee. The senators had a long talk, and when they departed no conclusion had been reached as to the best thing to be done. The proposition for a caucus was discussed, and some of the senators thought it would be wise to have a general conference of democratic senators before any step was taken, or a vote was had on any of the pending propositions. The matter of calling a caucus was left for further consideration, and will no doubt be discussed among other senators, and their views ascertained as to the advisability of taking such action.

For Popular Election of Senators.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Representative Tucker of Virginia, the author and champion of the resolution for a constitutional amendment to elect United States senators by direct vote of the people, which passed the house Saturday, is sanguine the senate will also pass the resolution and the necessary three-fourths of the states will give their assent necessary to make it effective.

No Quorum in the House.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The house found itself without a quorum early yesterday. The call showed 180 present, a few more than a quorum, but the committee on rules reported a resolution to direct the sergeant-at-arms to bring absentees to the bar of the house. Mr. Reed demanded the yeas and nays on the rule. A failure to find a quorum resulted and the house adjourned.

No Commissioners Yet Named.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—When Senator Palmer was asked by a correspondent last evening as to the complexion of the proposed labor commission, his reply was that as far as he knew no appointment had been made, either from Illinois or any other part of the United States.

OPERATING CAHILL MINES.

Citizens Determine the Workmen Shall Not Be Interfered With.

PERU, Ill., July 24.—Ninety-one men went down the Cahill shaft yesterday before 7 o'clock, and after that hour forty more came with their tools, but were told they could not go down until to-day. Among those at work are quite a number from Wenona, Spring Valley and other places, which is decidedly irritating to Peru miners. Strikers endeavored to prevent the men by persuasion from going down and in some instances were successful. Forces were so disposed to prevent disorder. No miners' mass meeting was held, but indications were that one had been planned and was afterward postponed. It is now stated that the monster meeting of all strikers in this vicinity will be held to-day to compel Cahill's coal diggers to quit work. Citizens and county authorities are determined that the mine shall be worked.

Judge Johnston Declines Also.

VALPARAISO, Ind., July 24.—As Charles B. Landis, the nominee of the convention at Hammond, May 24, declined the nomination last Saturday, Judge William Johnston, who was nominated at Hammond July 17, last evening addressed a letter to J. W. Ullery, chairman of the committee appointed by the convention to notify him of the nomination, also declining the honor. The district committee will meet at Logansport to-day to select a time and place for holding a new convention.

AFTER UNION PACIFIC.

Knights of Labor to Discuss Plan for Government Ownership.

OMAHA, Neb., July 24.—It is rumored that Delegate McGuire, member of the executive board of the Knights of Labor, in session here, has a scheme for having the government foreclose the mortgage on the Union Pacific road and have this railroad operated by the government in the future, as has been advocated by the Knights of Labor. It is said that if the government would foreclose the Union Pacific mortgage the price of railroad stocks would probably greatly decrease and that this would be the beginning which would end in the government owning and operating all the railroads of the country. That this matter will be considered during this session is a certainty, but it is not known yet what process will be employed to bring about the foreclosure.

A NEW LABOR UNION.

American Labor Union Launched Forth on the Troubled Seas.

CHICAGO, July 24.—A new labor union has been launched forth on the troubled seas of the labor world, which, its leaders say, will gather under one banner the whole army of the toiling masses. W. C. Walsh presided yesterday at the meeting of the board of directors of the new American Labor Union. The meeting was secret, directors only being present. The board adopted a declaration of principles, and decided by a majority of one to admit militiamen as members of the new organization, which the directors claim will take the place of the Knights of Labor. The officers of the new organization say organizers will be put in the field immediately and the union extended throughout the country.

Resolutions were adopted pledging financial support to E. V. Debs, and pledging co-operation to the American Railway Union.

To Transfer the Monument to the State, SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 24.—The Lincoln Monument association met yesterday and passed resolutions in favor of transferring the monument to the control of the state on the condition stipulated in the resolutions of 1853. BOY BARELY SAVED FROM DEATH'S GRIP.

GEORGE HARVEY GOES DOWN
THE THIRD TIME.

Man Who Was Passing Saw the Youngster's Red Waist in the Water, and Hanging by One Hand From a Plank, Held the Lad Until Help Came.

George Harvey's red waist saved his life yesterday afternoon when he fell in the race near Colling, Wray & Blair's mill. If it hadn't been for the red waist David Brown wouldn't have seen him floundering in the water, and before help could have been summoned he would have been lying lifeless on the river's bottom.

The man to whom young Harvey owes his life was passing up the alley when he saw something red appear as the center of a circle ripples in the water. Then it sank and came up again. Hurrying across the lumber piles Brown clutched a protecting plank and hung down over the water, and as the boy came up for the third time, seized him by the clothing. The lad was pretty heavy when his clothes were wet and the rescuer could not swim he had to simply hold him clear of the water. At this moment John G. Cowley, the bookkeeper in Colling, Wray & Blair's mill hurried out, he being summoned by the boy's companions and helped get the lad ashore.

Board Tipped and He Fell.

Young Harvey with two companions was fishing in the race and Harvey ventured out on the end of a plank that projected over the water. Another board stood on edge and parallel with the one that lay flat. Harvey sat down on the board that stood edgewise and when one of the other lads touched it with his foot the board tipped sideways and the boy plunged backward into the deep water. He was pretty far gone when they got him out. Young Harvey's home is in Illinois and he was in Janesville visiting friends. Much credit is due Mr. Brown for his prompt action in hurrying to the boy's assistance for half a minute longer in the water would have been fatal. The boy who summoned Mr. Cowley was so frightened that he could not tell what had happened for some time but Mr. Cowley knew by his actions that something was wrong and followed him out just in time to relieve the rescuer who could not have held out in his cramped position very much longer. Mr. Brown runs a feed store on Court street and was on his way to Ford's mill to see about a load of feed.

BEYOND ALL CARE AND WOE.

Mrs. Alba Childs.

The wife of Alba Childs died at Springfield, Walworth county, Wis., Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, July 18, in the seventy-eighth year of her age. The end was quiet and peaceful, being caused by the gradual failure of her physical powers. It probably was hastened by an accident about two years previous, when she was violently thrown from a carriage by a horse running away. This was followed by a severe attack of the gripe from which she never fully rallied.

Her maiden name was Adeline Williams. Her father was reared in Vermont, and his mother who was a Manning belonged to the distinguished family of that name in New York state. She was born December 19, 1816, at Greenbush, on the Hudson river, opposite the city of Albany. Her parents moved soon afterwards into the wilderness on the Holland Purchase and settled on a farm in the town of Royalton, now in the county of Niagara, N. Y. When eight years old, she lost her mother by death, and two years subsequent she went to live with her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Robinson, at South Reading, Windsor county, Vt. This journey was made on the Erie canal, from which on one occasion she was rescued from drowning, and by stage over the Green mountains, unaccompanied a portion of the way by any acquaintance.

In her new home she was required to perform hard work in the household and in other attentions to the family. She here learned the art of coloring maps and pictures, which were sold extensively throughout the country. The education she received was gained in the village public school and at Ludlow academy in the county where she resided. She married January 4, 1837, Ebenezer Robinson, Jr., a brother of her aunt's husband. His father, a descendant of a Puritan emigrant, was a Revolutionary soldier, and witnessed at his home in Lexington, Mass., the firing of the British troops upon the minute men of the place, who had assembled April 19, 1775, on the village green. This was the opening of the struggle for national independence. To this couple were born on a farm in Reading, three sons and a daughter. The oldest of these is Stillman W. Robinson, now a professor in the state university of Ohio, at Columbus; the next is Eliza A. Robinson, of Champaign, Ill., formerly an instructor in the state university, at that town; the third son is Albert A. Robinson, now president of Mexican Central railway, and formerly the efficient chief engineer, vice president and general manager of the Santa Fe railroad system, and the daughter is now Mrs. Mary Ella Phelps, a merchant and grain buyer at Springfield, in this state. At his home the deceased was living at the time of her death.

After slightly over eleven years of wedded life, her husband, a stout and healthy man, died with slender means for the support of her children and herself, and for five years she struggled bravely and cheerfully in good part, at the trade she had learned in her girlhood to secure a living for those under her care. At the close of this period she married Alba Childs, who had engaged in merchandizing in the community. He had previously married and lost his wife, and this new union brought into the family his only child, now Mrs. Inez C. Whitmore, the wife of Albert D. Whitmore, of Spring Prairie, Walworth county. She had been known as a prominent teacher in the southern central portion of Wisconsin.

In 1856 Mrs. Childs and her husband with Albert, the youngest son, and the two daughters came to this state; remained a few months in Madison; then moved to Edgerton, Rock county, and five years afterwards settled on a farm in the town of Fulton, east of Rock river. Here they resided quietly, respected and beloved by their neighbors, until 1883, when they sold out their home and removed to Springfield, so as to spend the rest of their days near their daughters, who had previously married and were living in this neighborhood.

Her life with Mr. Childs was a most happy and active one. He survives her, though somewhat an invalid, to mourn his great loss. She was a woman of remarkable beauty of face and form, of cheerful and happy temper, and exceedingly fond of her husband, children and friends. Her chief aim was to administer to the comfort and the usefulness of others, especially those most closely related to her. She was a person of few words; gentle in her ways, winning in the sweetness of her countenance and voice, and so sound in her judgment that her sons and daughters in their mature lives and responsible positions often applied to her for counsel.

The funeral services were held on the afternoon of July 21, at Springfield, and were conducted by President Whitford of Milton college. They were largely attended by the citizens of the place. There were present all the children except Albert A. Robinson, who was detained by business in Mexico; also Albert D. Whitmore, the son-in-law, and several of the grandchildren. Her brother, Stillman Williams of Geneva Lake, and his son from Chicago, was in attendance, as was also her nephew, J. Herbeinow, who lived during his boyhood in her home, and who is now connected with the solicitors' department of the Santa Fe system. Old neighbors from the town of Fulton, W. H. Cox and C. L. Langworthy, came to show their esteem for the deceased and their sympathy with the bereaved.

THE HIGHEST AWARD.

Royal Baking Powder in Strength and Value Twenty Per Cent. Above Its Nearest Competitor.

The Royal Baking Powder has the enviable record of having received the highest award for articles of its class—greatest strength, purest ingredients, most perfectly combined—wherever exhibited in competition with others. In the exhibitions of former years, at the Centennial, at Paris, Vienna and at the various state and industrial fairs, where it has been exhibited, judges have invariably awarded the Royal Baking Powder the highest honors.

At the recent World's Fair the examination for the baking powder awards were made by the experts of the chemical division of the agricultural department of Washington. The official reports of the tests of the baking powders which were made by this department for the specific purpose of ascertaining which was the best, and which has been made public, shows the leavening strength of the Royal to be 160 cubic inches of carbonic gas per ounce of powder. Of the cream of tartar baking powders exhibited at the fair, the next highest in strength thus tested contained but 133 cubic inches of leavening gas. The other powders gave an average of 111. The Royal, therefore, was found to be 20 percent. greater leavening strength than its nearest competitor, and 44 per cent. above the average of all the other tests. Its superiority in other respects, however, in the quality of the food it makes as to fineness, delicacy and wholesomeness, could not be measured by figures.

It is these high qualities, known and appreciated by the women of the country for so many years, that have caused the sales of the Royal Baking Powder, as shown by statistics, to exceed the sales of all other baking powders combined.

BARN S WIPED OUT BY THE LIGHTNING.

CHARLES SPENCER SUFFERS A HEAVY LOSS FROM FIRE.

Barn, Tobacco Shed and Cow Stable Destroyed and a Valuable Horse Killed—Porter Man Severely Hurt While Stopping Frightened Horses. Rain Did Much Good.

EVANSVILLE, July 24.—Lightning struck a barn on Charles Spencer's farm one mile east of Evansville, killing a valuable horse and setting fire to the barn which was totally destroyed together with a tobacco shed and cow barn near by. A large quantity of hay, eighteen cases of tobacco and considerable machinery were burned. The property was partially insured except the tobacco shed, which was a total loss. The farm was occupied by Sylvester Purrington, a brother-in-law of Mr. Spencer. Frank Woodbury of Woodbury & Son, while unloading a barrel of salt at the home of a customer, slipped and the barrel striking his leg fractured it below the knee. Miss Mary Wolf, an estimable young lady, died of brain fever a few days since and was buried Friday afternoon. Her home was with her parents two miles west of Evansville. Miss Wolf was about twenty-three years of age. She graduated from Evansville Seminary a year or two ago, and bade fair to enjoy a long happy and useful life.

DID WOMEN VOTE THIS YEAR?

South Turtle Correspondent Inquires as to the Developments This Year.

SOUTH TURTLE, July 24.—It is rather late in the day, but we were just wondering how many ladies turned out generally to the school meetings in Rock county. Feeling that she could not do justice to Sunday school and class, Mrs. Dresser

Sunday, and Mrs. Lizzie Benedict was chosen as their teacher. Osbert Jack has returned from Chicago and expects to visit the Atlantic coast for his health. The neighborhood prayer meeting which was to have been held at Calvin Johnson's, was postponed on account of the tent meetings at Clinton. D. G. Smith was quite sick for a few days last week. It is reported that Horatio Murray has sold his farm. Some of our people took in the Sunday school convention held recently at Manchester, Illinois. Miss Emma Curtis spent a portion of last week with her former class mate, Mrs. Hamilton. Minnie Carpenter has been visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Hammonds, for some days. Don't forget the Sunday School in the Murray District every Sabbath afternoon at 2 o'clock. The missionary picnic at Frank Hammonds was well attended. Miss Curtis of Shopiere, a former teacher of LaMoine Normal school of Memphis, Tenn., was present and spoke for a few minutes. If you want to see Calvin Johnson's eyes shine just ask him how that boy is. Some one said he couldn't be reached with a ten foot pole these days. Anyway we wish him much joy. Miss Warner, a former resident of South Clinton, was a caller in this neighborhood last week and attended Sunday School and preaching at the Murray school house.

DOINGS OF PEOPLE IN AFTON

Funeral of Frank C. Eddy—Delegates Instructed For E. C. Burdick.

AFTON, July 24.—The funeral service over the remains of Frank C. Eddy, whose death was noted in last week's Gazette, were held at the residence of S. C. Otis, last Friday, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. T. Roe, of La Moille, Ill., officiating. The interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. Kilmer & Palmer, inaugurated the threshing season in this section last Monday, by opening up with their steam outfit at William J. Millers. The town of Rock remembers her "boys". At the republican caucus held on the 14th inst. the delegates to the county convention were instructed to use all honorable means for securing the nomination of E. C. Burdick as clerk of the circuit court. Among Afton people who visited Evansville friends last week were Marvin Patterson, Harry S. Bixby, Anna L. Tank and Lois A. Waite. Rev. Charles T. Roe occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sunday, preaching both morning and evening. Charles P. Wilcox came down from Oregon, Wis., Monday, for a brief call on Afton friends. W. H. Eddy of Titusville, Pa., Dr. J. H. Eddy of Wakefield, Mich., and Rev. C. J. Eddy of Denmark, Iowa, are spending a few days with Afton relatives, having been called hither by the sickness and death of their brother.

Watson and daughter Katie were visiting relatives here a few days last week. Sperry Bros. started out last Monday morning with their steam thrasher. Quite a number of young people from this vicinity and Stoughton picniced at Sunday at lake Kegonsa. The Latter Day Saints' meeting held near the Wilder school house last Sunday was largely attended. THERMOMETER STOOD AT 132 ABOVE

South Clinton Has Some Weather to be Bragged About.

SOUTH CLINTON, July 24.—The intense heat of the last few days has been terrible. Thermometers have run from 100 to 108 in the shade. Tuesday, at 1 o'clock the thermometer ran to 132 in the sun. Harvesting and haying are progressing rapidly. Rye and barley are all cut and some stacking done. Mr. Titus of Beloit, was through this part of the country on Wednesday, looking up the prohibition work. Mrs. Carrie Dresser attended the medal contest in Manchester, Ill., last Saturday evening. The South Clinton subscribers to the Witness are very sorry to know of its being merged into the Banner. Miss Lizzie Soper of Clinton, has been spending some days with her aunt, Mrs. Benedict. Any one passing W. E. Dresser's on Wednesday last, might have seen three binders in the field, but even with an expert present they couldn't make them all work for some reason. George Giles and wife were visitors at the old home last week.

EXPERT THIEF GOT ROSEY'S DIAMOND.

CLOTHING MERCHANT ROBBED IN A CROWD LAST NIGHT.

Crook with a Pair of Nippers Clipped the Stone From the Merchant's Shirt Front So Deftly That He Did Not Know it Was Done.

Someone who was more expert than exemplary clipped S. Rosey's forty dollar diamond from his shirt front last night, leaving the wire it was mounted on but getting the sparkling stone. Rosey was in a crowd and did not feel it when the clippers were used. So he knew nothing about it until it was too late for him to ask that "the door be locked" as is the custom when a man is "touched."

"I did not know I lost the stud," he said this morning. "I did not keep my eye out for anything of the kind. I do not figure that every man in a crowd is a thief."

CLEAR LAKE CAMPERS ARE HAPPY

Many Have Taken Advantage of the Pretty Spots About the Lake.

CLEAR LAKE, July 24.—The lake is booming. Campers are seen on every side, and there are a good many boarders. Mr. Meskie, on the north side, will have a dance party next Wednesday night. All are cordially invited. Mrs. Archie Hadden and children, F. R. Morris and family, R. Boss, of Milton, the Craig family and a good many others are enjoying camp life. Harvesting is nearly closed. The rain did much good to tobacco and corn and gardens. Mrs. Clara Stockman has just returned home from a four weeks' trip to Janesville visiting her parents and also visiting at J. B. Hubbard of Beloit. Mrs. A. L. Rose is a little better at present writing.

DOOM IN THE BATH TUB.

Ablution of the Future Will Be by Rain and Shower Baths.

The dwelling house of the future, constructed on scientific and hygienic principles, will be bathtubless, says the New York Mail and Express. The porcelain-lined, and zinc-lined, and tin-lined tubs of to-day will be unknown. Their place will be taken by a tiled room, in which will be arranged shower or rain baths at various angles. These douches will supply hot, cold, or tepid water at the pleasure of the bather, and the liquid will be carried off as fast as it is used by a spacious drain pipe. The idea is not a new one, and whenever it has been adopted the result has been gratifying. There are three houses in London, recently completed, supplied with this method of bathing, and there is said to be one in Philadelphia. It is not known whether the innovation has been made in New York—that is, whether there is any private dwelling fitted up exclusively with shower baths. There are several fashionable houses on Madison and Fifth avenues that have both, but it is doubtful if anywhere the tub has been abandoned altogether.

It is claimed for the rain bath that it is in every way superior to the method we have known since civilization began, and this has been proven in many public institutions. The first one ever built in America was put in the New York juvenile asylum. The Demilt dispensary has them, and so has the bathing establishment erected by the trustees of the Baron Hirsch fund at Henry and Market streets. One of the largest rain baths in the country is now in course of construction in the state hospital for the insane at Utica, and it is predicted that within a very few years all prisons and hospitals will have adopted the system.

The most enthusiastic advocate of the rain bath is William Paul Gerhard, who has made a study of its advantages. In the first place he says that it requires less space in the planning of a bathhouse, it consumes less time in application, the body of the bather does not come in contact with solid water, the mechanical and tonic effect of the descending stream is unquestionable, the cleansing and stimulating effects are greater than in a bath tub, less water is required, and no time is lost in waiting for the filling of a tub in houses where the supply is slow. These are a few of the reasons advanced, and Mr. Gerhard bases an elaborate argument upon them, maintaining his position throughout with a logic that is convincing and interesting.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

Far From the Madding Crowd.

This what many a nervous sufferer wishes himself every day. But there will soon be no necessity to forsake the busy—albeit somewhat noisy—scenes of metropolitan life, if the nervous invalid will begin, and persist in the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will speedily bring relief to a weak and overstrung nervous system. Day by day the body acquires vigor through the influence of this reliable tonic, and in the vitality which it diffuses through the system the nerves conspicuously share. Sleep, appetite, digestion—all these are promoted by this popular invigorant, and if they are, who can doubt that the acquisition of health and nerve quietude will be speedy and complete? Constipation, biliousness, malaria, nausea, sea sickness and cramps in the stomach yield to this remedy.

THE STATE TICKET.

Eleven men will sleep but little tonight. They are all candidates for governor and tomorrow will determine their fate. The convention will consist of 345 members, of which Milwaukee city and Milwaukee county will have 49, or nearly one-seventh of the whole convention.

The vote for the respective candidates on the first ballot is a matter of mere speculation. Some assign 98 votes to one of the candidates. But the indications are that no candidate will show a greater force than 85.

There are so many good men on the list, men so worthy to be governor of our commonwealth, that the convention will have a difficult task to select. But one consideration should be dominant—the candidate who can show that he will be the most influential in carrying the greatest majority of congressmen and the largest number of senators, should have a special white mark in his favor. The people of the United States feel that there is a great necessity that the majority in the next house of representatives should be republican. At the present time the Wisconsin delegation is divided—six democrats and four republicans. We must have eight of the ten, and we ought to have nine of the ten, and we can secure that number if all our local tickets are uniformly strong and well poised. On the state ticket, of course, responsibility will rest most heavily. Washington as well as Madison is to be redeemed, and the convention in Milwaukee tomorrow must do its share.

C. M. & ST. P. CO. DO NOT INSURE

$300,000 In Cash Set Aside to Pay Their Fire Losses Instead.

If the Janesville depot of the C. M. & St. P. railway should go up in smoke the loss would be total as the company do not carry insurance. They have a new scheme whereby $300,000 is set apart, the result of a conclusion that the company could insure its own property better than it could be insured by regular insurance companies. The sum of $300,000 was withdrawn from the funds of the company by resolution, with the understanding that it should be kept good by appropriations from time to time to meet drafts against losses. During the past year the company's losses have been light.

FREIGHT BUSINESS GROWS HEAVY

Extra Trains Made Necessary by the Increase in Shipments.

The railways are doing a heavy business just now, and in order to meet the heavy shipments a number of extra freight trains are running on both railways. Yesterday one road received fifteen heavily laden cars of merchandise for Janesville.

"Business in the freight department is the best I have seen in a long time," said a St. Paul freight office employee this afternoon. "We have a number of special freights running every day, the other road appears as lively. There appears to be an immense amount of freight for the railroads to move. If the business only keeps up we will have plenty of work for all hands."

LAWYER FIFIELD AS A PRIVATEER

Captures His Own Craft That Was Lost on the Deep.

Some time ago Attorney Charles L. Fifield built a boat, lavishing upon it care and ten penny nails without limit. Everybody said it was a good boat, and it was a good boat. That was the trouble with it; it was so good that some one stole it. An eight-mile row up the river in which each bay harbor and lighthouse was closely inspected, did not locate it, and the attorney noded his case and quit. Last night he saw two men rowing it under the Milwaukee street bridge, and hastened to board the craft. They were innocent borrowers, the attorney went at once to see the man who owned it, and soon he'll plow the waves and heave the capstan overboard from his own quarter deck once more.

B. B. BAKER'S STORE IS CLOSED.

Brother of the Proprietor Forecloses a Chattel Mortgage to Protect Himself.

The confectionary store of B. B. Baker, on West Milwaukee street bridge, was closed today by W. P. Baker, a brother of the proprietor, on a chattel mortgage, the mortgage being for $254, covering nearly everything in the establishment.

"My brother informed me that he was not doing a paying business," said W. P. Baker this afternoon, "and in order to save what money I loaned him I was compelled to take the stock. I am now packing it up. I do not know what his liabilities are, but I understand that he owes very little, mostly to parties in the city in small amounts."

Mr. Baker did not carry a very large stock of goods, and therefore, whatever the assets, the liabilities cannot be very large.

COOPER WAS NAMED WITHOUT DISSENT

NOMINATION MADE IN RACINE THIS AFTERNOON.

Change in a Well Known Drug Firm—Gas Lamps Lighted—Benjamin Sern's Case Continued—Delegates Headed for Milwaukee—Janesville People Are on the Wing.

H. A. COOPER was nominated for congress by acclamation in Racine today. It took a trifle over an hour to get everything out of the way. A. O. Chamberlain of La Fayette county was made chairman and O. R. Olson of Green county secretary. John Luchsinger of Monroe, proposed Mr. Cooper and the nomination was made without a dissenting voice. On motion of M. T. Parks of Elkhorn, it was ordered that the representation in assembly, senatorial and county conventions in the First Congressional district be one delegate for every fifty republican votes at the last presidential election.

A CHANGE in one of the best known firms in Janesville is announced in another column. W. G. Palmer retires from the drug business and his interest in the Palmer & Stevens establishment is taken by C. D. Stevens. The store is one of the best known in southern Wisconsin and the circle of its patronage, already wide, will grow steadily under Mr. Stevens' energetic direction. Mr. Palmer's plans for the future are still unsettled, and at present no announcement is made.

WISCONSIN never saw a finer aggregation of trotting horses, either in point of numbers or the class of animals than are now sheltered at the Janesville track. Every stall on the grounds, the poultry house, tobacco sheds and even the city stables had to be called into use to accommodate them.

A. C. THORPE of Evansville, was in the city this morning and renewed his subscription to The Gazette. Mr. Thorpe says that he is a candidate for county treasurer this fall. It has been reported that he was out of the field, but he denies this and says he is in it to stay.

DAVID CONGER, E. O. Kimberly, Cyrus Miner and T. W. Goldin went to Milwaukee on the early morning train to get seats on the ground floor of the great republican state convention, which convenes to-morrow. They will be reinforced by a large delegation this evening.

THE case of the state against Benjamin Serns was called in the municipal court this morning and continued until August 6. The case comes from a justice's court in Edgerton, the defendant being called upon to provide proper support for a little child in that city.

WHEN lovely women have the opportunity of voting, Brown Bros. & Lincoln will be elected as the popular, painless foot fitters. 'Tis a feat to fit the feet, surely, and to fit them without purse-aches and pain is what characterizes the successful foot fitters.

FOR a few nights this week the gas lamps will be lighted. An opportunity will be given for comparing the lighting of the town by gas and electricity in combination and by electricity alone.

DENNIS HAYES smiles as sweetly as can be and all because a bright eyed babe came to stay yesterday morning. Some day he'll vote and help his father with some of those big railroad contracts.

RACES UNDER WAY WITH BIG FIELDS.

SECOND 1894 MEETING AN ASSURED SUCCESS.

Nearly 250 Horses Here, and Half a Million Dollars Would Just About Buy Them—How the Flyers Started To Day in the 2:45 and the 2:27 Classes.

Janesville's second big race meeting opened this afternoon. As fine a lot of horses as are now here never gathered in Wisconsin before. Two hundred and fifty of them are quartered in the stalls and various other buildings at the track, not to speak of the tobacco sheds near the track and the private stables in town. Probably half a million dollars would buy the lot, but it is doubtful if you would get them all with any less sum in your pocket. One hundred and seventy of these are entered in the various contests. In the 2:45 class which was the first race, The Judge and Myra Simmons were equal partners in the pools last night, selling for ten dollars against a sixteen dollar field. The entries were: The Judge, ch g, by Round Sprague, entered by B. P. Edwards, Earlville, Ill.; Chesson, br, by Capoul, entered by A. D. Patton; Julia W., by Nutwood, entered by B. L. & F. D. Stout, Dubuque, Iowa; Chicago Belle, b m, by Onward, entered by D. W. Ryan, Chicago, Ill.; Myra Simmons, b m, by Simmons entered by A. A. Chesson, Parapet, Anthony, Gentry and Wara were drawn when the 2:45 class came out and Glendale had drawn the pole of the first division with Marco Polo at the pole of the second division. The noted starter, McElroy was at the bell and when he gave them the word The Judge took the lead and kept it all the way through. Ella H. and Chicago Belle made rather phenomenal spurts for better positions.

Colts Are Unknown Quality.

Sphinxetta sold favorite in the three year old and under race at ten dollars while Phenom and the field brought eighteen dollars each. Some of the wise ones shook their heads at this and said "go slow." Hal Trego, entered by Thomas Cunningham, was the cause of their suspicion. Cunningham had never started his colt in a race. When he came here he did not know how fast it could go. He had beaten '97 and '98 horses in work at home but that was the extent of Cunningham's knowledge. After jogging about the Janesville track for an hour and not getting a chance to "work out" with anything in his class, Cunningham said that he'd work with the next horse that came along. No matter whether it was a three minute horse or a free-for-all. When Free Coinage and Gattson came along Cunningham took after them. Free Coinage's record is 2:11 1/2, taken as a three-year-old, and he is in the free-for-all pace here. Grattan is in the 2:16 trotting class. The two horses went a mile, they say, in 2:15 but Cunningham was on their wheels all the way round. This made them skeptical. The entries in the race were as follows: Phenom, rn c, by Director, entered by Ab Fullagar, Galesburg, Ill.; Hal Grego, br c, by Prince Hal, entered by Theo Cunningham, Monroe, Wis.; Marks Maid, b f, by Marksman, entered by D. D. Darling, Burlington, Wis.; Glanis, b h, by Gregor McGregor, entered by R. Bean, Emporia, Kan.; Choral, b f, entered by O. H. Phelps, St. Louis, Mo.; Stella W., b f, by Trump, entered by S. H. LEAGUE TEAM MAY PLAY HERE.

Milwaukee's Base Ball Tossers Will Come for a $100 Guarantee.

Milwaukee's league base ball team may be the next nine that the Athletics will tackle. The Janesville nine has not yet been defeated, and they have played every club within reach. Several base ball enthusiasts have asked for a game with a professional nine, and now the Milwaukeees will come if they are guaranteed $100. This is a pretty good sized guarantee, and so it remains with the people who want to see the game, whether it comes off or not. Thursday, August 2 is the date.

The Golden Eagles defeated the South Ends by a score of 15 to 8. Sunday afternoon.

Judge Bennett Denies a Motion For a Special Judgment.

In the circuit court yesterday Judge Bennett denied the motion of the defendant in the case of Carpenter against the Northwestern Railway Co. for a special judgment, and on motion of the plaintiff judgment was ordered in accordance with the verdict of the jury, being for $500. This was an action brought by E. F. Carpenter for damages to one of his horses, inflicted while being transported in one of the defendant's cars.

ter whether it was a three minute horse or a free-for-all. When Free Coinage and Gattson came along Cunningham took after them. Free Coinage's record is 2:11 1/2, taken as a three-year-old, and he is in the free-for-all pace here. Grattan is in the 2:16 trotting class. The two horses went a mile, they say, in 2:15 but Cunningham was on their wheels all the way round. This made them skeptical. There is a science in blackingshoes. A good blacking and brush are very essential to satisfactory results. We have them both. Our price on the B. C. blacking to include a twenty-five cent brush will be twenty cents. With this outfit you need not become overheated, the morals of the children will not be endangered by any improper language, and Brown Bros. & Lincoln will be remembered as the bargain hunters' best friend.

The party we bought the Michigan stock of told Mr. Lincoln, after completing the sale just how many hundred dollars he had lost in the transaction. His misfortune can be made a money saving opportunity for you. He sold the stock awful low and we are willing to give you the benefit of our purchase. No house on earth can can quote you a price to compare with the figures we have put on these goods. They are not a lot of old plunder, the accumulation of many years, but nice new stuff purchased only of reliable houses by an experienced shoe man. Come in and call for Michigan stock. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Bread-winner is the name of our $2 shoe. It is a magnificent specimen of fine shoe-making. We guarantee them to equal any $3 shoe on this market. A printed warrant with every pair. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

No empty boxes in ours! Every case chuck full. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We have no complaint to make these hot days. Busy people have no time for grievances. The idle merchant, the walking delegate is the calamity howler. We are working for your interest and our own. We have a money-saving method of buying. No secret. We watch the trade and when we find a nice clean stock of goods and the owner short of cash we go to the rescue. Our dollars are exchanged for his goods and we share with you our profits. Do you understand? Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We have a complete repairing establishment connected with our store. Prompt service, good work and moderate charges will be our motto. We want to do your repairing. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES

To Bring Back Lieutenant Peary.

Philadelphia who know him commend very highly the selection of Henry G. Bryant as leader of the expedition which has gone north to bring back Lieutenant Peary and his party of arctic explorers. Bryant knows something of the frozen north, having been with the Peary expedition of 1892. He expects to reach Peary's headquarters at Bowdoin bay in the latter part of July. As the lieutenant is not due to return there from his sledging trip until the end of August, Mr. Bryant hopes to be able to explore Jones sound and map out the shore line of Ellesmere Land, besides making some ethnological investigations among the isolated tribe of Eskimos. He has some hope, too, of finding further traces of the ill-fated Swedish explorers, Björning and Kallstenius, who were wrecked on Carey island in August, 1892.

"Vermiform Appendix Murphy."

Dr. J. B. Murphy of Chicago, who was recently elected honorary president for America of the international medical congress in Rome, is recognized as one of the foremost surgeons in the United States. He was the first to perform the operation of removing the vermiform appendix, which surd result in saving the lives of 60 per cent or more of persons afflicted with appendicitis. Dr. Murphy is professor of surgery in the Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons, and was for six years lecturer on surgery at Rush medical college. He is president of the Cook county hospital staff. He is a native of Wisconsin and only about 36 years of age.

Age of Some Universities.

It is said that the university of Oxford was founded by King Alfred the Great in 872. The university of Cambridge, or rather the first of the colleges at present comprised in it, was founded by Hugo, bishop of Ely, in 1257. The university of Paris was founded by King Philip II. about the year 1200. The first German university was established at Prague in 1348. Trinity college, Dublin, was incorporated by royal charter in 1591. The university of Edinburgh was first chartered in 1582 by King James VI. of Scotland. Harvard college was founded at Cambridge, or as it was then known, Newton, Mass., in 1636. Yale university was first established at Saybrook, Conn., in 1700. It removed to its present location, New Haven, in 1716.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Unconquerable Habit.

"Isn't it a beautiful night, Clarence?" she whispered tenderly as her head rested against his shoulder. "Yes," replied Clarence, the barber, very absent-mindedly, as he ran his fingers softly through her golden hair. "Fine night. Better have that hair trimmed up a little, though, hadn't you? Looks pretty ragged, you know, and it really needs a shampoo, too."

Not at All New.

"Well," snapped Mrs. Haggleley, "I heard a woman say to-day that you were the meanest man in town." "And of course you had nothing to say in reply," growled her husband. "It's just like you." "Oh! but I did though," she retorted, "and I said it too." "What did you say?" "I said 'Chestnuts.'"

The Oldest Library.

The oldest library in the United States is claimed to be the New York society library in University place. As its story is given, it was established by the earl of Bellamont in 1709 in the new city hall in Wall street, where the sub-treasury building now stands. New York had then a population of about 5,000.

A Word for the Clam.

"You often hear it said, 'Don't be a clam.'"
"Yes."
"I think this does injustice to the clam. There is something about that bivalve that commends it to our consideration and respect."
"What is that?"
"It knows when to shut up."

A Wise Scarecrow.
"I say," said the tramp to the scarecrow, "let's swap clothes."
"Not I," said the scarecrow. "Fact is, it would never do."
"Why not?" said the tramp.
"Well, the crows, seeing me, are scared. They think I'll run after 'em. But if they thought I was like you they'd know I'd rather fall asleep. I tell you, old man, crows know a thing or two. They judge by appearances."
—Harper's Young People.

Collecting Statistics.
A northern gentleman asked an old negro, who was the driver of a cart to which was attached a venerable mule: "How old is the mule, my colored friend?"
"He am like yersef, boss, pretty well on in life."
"But how many years?"
"Same as you, boss, only two."
—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

And He Had Nothing to Say.
Husband—Now, I think this is going too far. You promised me you would countermand your order for that dress. Wife—I wrote that very day.
"But here is the dress and the bill for it—enough to bankrupt me, almost. How do you explain that?"
"I gave you the letter, and suppose you forgot to post it, as usual."—Answers.

A Thorough Confession.
"Herbert," she said, "tell me one thing, and tell me truthfully. Were you ever intoxicated?"
"Well," replied the young man, "I was air-tight once."
"What do you mean?"
"I had a tooth pulled and took laughing gas."—Washington Star.

A Personal Allusion.
"I believe I'll go out and stretch my legs a little," said a tall gentleman, as the train stopped at a station on the New York Central.

"O, don't," said a gentleman passenger who had been sitting opposite to him, and who had been much embarrassed by the legs of the tall gentleman. "Don't do that. Don't stretch those legs any more. They are too long already."
The look the long man gave the critic who objected to such lengthy extremities will haunt the rash man as long as memory holds her seat.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Theory and Practice.
Wife—Do newspaper writers sit up all night?
Husband—I believe so.
"That explains it, then."
"Explains what?"
"The household department of this paper recommends roast potatoes for breakfast. One would have to sit up all night to have the oven hot enough."
—N. Y. Weekly.

Breaking It Gently.
Edgar—Miss Edith, I—ah—have something most important to ask you. May I—that is—Edith (softly)—What is it, Edgar?
Edgar—May I—Edith, would you be willing to have our names printed in the papers, with a hyphen between?—Answers.

Indignant Citizen—What claim have you got on me? I never saw or heard of you before.
Applicant (for a loan)—I'm a sort of relative, sir. I married your second cousin's divorced wife.—Chicago Tribune.

STORY TELLING FOR PROFIT.

A Vocation Which Serves to Earn a Livelihood.

The information has just been spread abroad that a new avenue toward earning a livelihood has opened itself to women. A young English woman has lately become a professional story teller and goes about to country houses in the guise of a guest to amuse her companions on rainy afternoons. The idea is a good one, but by no means new, and the fact that the just mentioned young woman is the first person known publicly to follow the calling, at least out of the orient, does not prove her to be specially original, for the heroine of one of Thomas Hardy's novels—"The Hand of Ethelberta," if recollection serves—earns her living by means of her impromptu narrative powers and indeed supports her whole family by exercising her enviable faculty in the houses of her wealthy friends. However, if the real story teller did get her notion from Mr. Hardy, it is nothing against her, and it is to be hoped that she will be successful enough to make the spinning of yarns a recognized calling, provided the public will refuse to accept any except first class entertainment. We all like to read stories of adventure and supernatural incident, and we even like to hear tales that we have already read recited by an elocution-

INSISTED ON HIS RIGHTS.

Mild-Mannered Passenger Demanded a Seat Before Giving His Ticket.

A west-bound train had just pulled out of the Union station at Albany, says the Express, and the conductor was harvesting tickets. All the seats were taken and several passengers were obliged to stand up. Among the latter was a diffident-looking, mild-mannered man, who, much to the conductor's surprise, refused to give up a ticket.

"When I get a seat you get a ticket," he remarked mildly but firmly; "you are probably aware that the company cannot collect fares from passengers whom it does not provide with seats."

"Oh, come now, that don't go; I want your ticket, see?" Thus spoke the conductor, in a tone that indicated that he believed he would intimidate the mild-mannered man.

"No seat, no ticket," laconically observed the latter.

"We'll see about that," growled the conductor, who was becoming quite warm in the region of the collar.

"I would if I were you," remarked the passenger, still mildly, smiling pleasantly.

Then the conductor hustled around and found a brother conductor who was going up the road away, whom he induced to give up his seat to the mildly firm passenger.

"There's a seat for you; now give me that ticket," said the conductor in a ferocious tone.

"Certainly, here it is."

And the mild but firm passenger handed out a pass good to Chicago.

SUPREME CONTEMPT.

A Little Story Which Shows How Deceitful Appearances Are.

A good story showing how appearances are sometimes deceitful comes from Russia. At a certain famous restaurant in St. Petersburg six somewhat dandyish officers of the Imperial Horse guards sat drinking champagne. Not far from them sat an insignificant little man with a shabby and unkempt beard, and a glass of liquor in front of him.

It was not long before he became aware that he was being ridiculed by the officers. By the by, as they became more and more offensive in their remarks on his personal appearance, etc., he called for the waiter and said:

"Bring six bottles of your best champagne!"

The waiter hesitated.

"Did you not hear what I said?" asked the little man. The waiter again hesitated, but obeyed instantly at the peremptory repetition of the order. "A piece of soap!" was the next order. It was brought. "A towel!" The waiter handed him one. "Now, open the bottles!" The waiter did so.

The little man now filled the basin with the contents of the six bottles, rolled up his sleeves, washed himself in the costly fluid, wiped his hands, laid a 100 rouble note on the table, and, casting a look of withering contempt on the officers, strutted out of the room.

Labouche Smells a Job.

The promotion of Lord Wolseley to be a field marshal at such a very early age is in reality the first step toward an arrangement which the court has for some time been anxiously endeavoring to carry out. Within the next few months the duke of Cambridge is to resign his office as commander in chief, and he will be succeeded therein by Lord Wolseley, who is to hold that post for five years, after which he will be replaced by the duke of Connaught, whose appointment is intended to be permanent. Lord Roberts is to succeed Lord Wolseley at Dublin. It will certainly be funny if this monstrous job is successfully launched under a liberal government.

Hot Water.

There is a custom practiced in Northern China of using hot water every morning to wash the face and hands. Men, women and children must have a basin of clean, hot water when they get up or before they eat their breakfast, in which to bathe feet and hands at least. Even beggars have hot water, or use none at all. Seasons do not affect the custom.

In summer, when one would think a cold bath would be grateful, hot water is used all the same. No one would insult his guest by offering cold water to wash in. The water is almost scalding hot, and the towel for wiping is first used as a wash-rag.

VARIOUS NOTES.

Wherein Parisian Women Are Far In Advance of the Americans.

A French household writer recommends dipping net or gimpure curtains that have been washed into a mixture of gum arabic and water in the proportion of 30 grams of gum arabic to a quart of water. A yellow tinge may be obtained by adding a little saffron previously dissolved in water. Tea may be used in place of saffron. A still deeper tint is secured by using coffee.

Lemon juice, although it gives transparency to the nails, should not be used on them oftener than twice a week unless the hands are discolored by fruit or ink stains, since it has the property of drying the skin about the edge of the nail, thereby encouraging hang nails, which are painful as well as unsightly.

Ornamental hairpins are very favorably regarded at the present time. Gold and jeweled ornaments are said to look well in all shades of hair, although diamond pins are scarcely favorable to the brilliancy of blond tresses. Aqua marina or turquoise is better for golden locks, while coral is as becoming to black hair as the more precious diamond. Plain gold pins are particularly effective in red and chestnut hair, while silver harmonizes well with flaxen or gray hair.

It is a pity that topazes still remain out of fashion. They were highly prized 30 years ago, and the pure white variety, when it is a true topaz, still commands the respectful attention of the jeweler in spite of public neglect. The pink topaz, being rare, is also valued, but no variety is more beautiful than the pure yellow.

In one respect at least—and this is said with no thought of decrying American womanhood on general principles—Parisian women are far in advance of us. They esteem ornament for its beauty and becomingness rather than for its pecuniary value. This must arise from the fact that their perceptions have been rendered more accurate by being developed amid the results of ages of artistic culture, whereas we as a people are artistically crude. It is more honest to admit this truth, especially as, like love and cough, it cannot be concealed. Besides we have a preponderance of advantages in other respects, and seeing that we are crude is a long way toward something better.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nerve she now weighs 100 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nerve has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. K. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

WATER THROWING WAS A SUCCESS

State School for the Blind Has Ample Fire Protection.

The water service at the school for the blind was given a thorough test this morning. The test was made by the fire department in the presence of President Snyder, of the state board of control, ex-Governor Charles D. Parker, also a member of the board of control, and Superintendent Pease, of the school. Mayor Thoroughgood, with Aldermen Child, Kothman and Winslow were also present, besides a large number of spectators. Several tests were made, first throwing three one-inch streams, with stand-pipe pressure, the same with one hundred pound pressure, and with one hundred and twenty-five pounds. Then two streams were thrown from one hydrant, one being with an ordinary nozzle, the other with a patent attachment. Both were very fine streams. Larger streams were exhibited with the deluge pipes. First an 1.3-4 stream was thrown, followed by a two inch stream closing with a single 1.1-2 inch stream. The test was somewhat marred by gravel stones clogging the pipes at times, compelling a shut down to remedy the trouble. All were well pleased with the test, and Superintendent Pease is satisfied that he now has first class fire protection at the school. The water throwing at the school this morning was quite as good as if near the center of the city.

Peacock Not Their Model.

Don't be a peacock. Its foolish. To be fine feathered and ashamed of your feet. Then why wear a clumsy shapeless shoe? Take a look at that line of $5.00 shoes made on our new Columbia last with patent leather quarters that are selling for July and August at $3.50 and if you don't pronounce them equal to those you have on that cost you $4.00 or $5.00 we will be greatly mistaken.

Lobsters.

Lobsters are not peace-abiding crustaceans. They cannot be persuaded to grow up together peaceably. If a dozen newly-hatched specimens are put into an aquarium, within a few days there will be only one—a large, fat, and promising youngster. He will have eaten all the rest.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

Two Trains Come Together on the Texas & Pacific Road.

ATLANTA, Texas, July 24.—A collision occurred last evening on the Texas & Pacific road, nine miles north of here, near Forest Station. Six or seven persons were killed and several wounded. Two of the bodies are still in the wreck and a third was torn up and the remains scattered in the debris. One engine is completely wrecked and the other badly disabled. The baggage, express, mail and smoker of both trains were shattered into a mass of splinters. The dead engineer was taken to Texarkana and the bodies of the fireman and an unknown man were removed to Marshall. The wounded were also taken to Marshall, but the number and names of the victims could not be ascertained at this point.

No Fusion in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 24.—The Republican State convention meets here to-day. The chief question to come before the convention will be the advisability of fusion with the populists. At an informal meeting the question was discussed, but no action was taken.

Joseph Cannon Renominated.

KANKAKEE, Ill., July 24.—The republican convention of the Twelfth congressional district assembled in this city yesterday and renominated Congressman Joseph G. Cannon by acclamation.

Springfield Filling Up.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 24.—Despite the fact that the republican state convention does not meet for two days yet, the hotels are crowded. All day long the candidates and their friends have been trooping into the city. They are all here now, Senator Culion alone excepted. The convention promises to be a very lively one and a bitter fight for many of the nominations is expected.

Held for Conspiracy.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 24.—Commissioner Bloodgood in the railroad strike cases yesterday discharged William Horan and Edward Riley of the charges of conspiracy, and held Eugene V. Debs, F. W. Archibald, C. S. McAuliffe, John Poulter, William Crimmins, Walter Dunn, C. S. Van Ellis, J. C. Callahan, D. A. Sullivan and M. L. Johann to the grand jury for examination for trial at the October term.

"In the summer," said a housewife, "the ice in the refrigerator melts very rapidly. To make it last as long as possible we used to wrap about it an old blanket or a piece of carpet, but nowadays we wrap it up in newspapers. It keeps better in newspapers and we no longer have the trouble of washing and drying the other wraps."

THE TAX-GATHERER.

The taxes of the people of this country equal about $10 to each inhabitant.

Finland is the least taxed country in Europe. The total taxes amount to only $4 per head of population.

The revenue of nations rises mostly by taxation has trebled since 1850, increased over five times since 1810, and fifty-five times since 1680.

The royal library of Nebuchadnezzar recently unearthed at Babylon, contains innumerable tax lists and records of taxes paid and unpaid.

There are 2,954 persons in Great Britain who pay tax on an income of more than $5,000 a year, and 975 who pay taxes on more than $10,000.

The people of Italy are the most heavily taxed of any civilized nation. The state taxation equals twenty-two per cent of the earnings of the people.

The revenue of the United States government last year was $385,818,629 of which all but $3,000,000, from the sale of public lands, was derived from taxation.

The people of the United States pay more taxes than the people of any other nation on the globe. The estimated total of national and local taxation is $630,000,000.

Do You Know Sanspareil?

Read the following and you will understand more about it.

New York City, Oct. 5, 1879.

To Whom it May Concern:

After forty years of successful practice in this city and realizing that my work is done, I want to make the following statement concerning the secret of my success. Many who read this statement will remember that I frequently said that I would give $100 for any case of rheumatism that I could not cure. I was equally successful in treating inflammation and diphtheria. These cures were always effected by the use of a liniment that I prepared myself. I was offered at one time $7,000 for the formula. Its absorbing qualities surpass anything I have ever seen and it will cure rheumatism, neuralgia, tumors, inflammation of various kinds, sprains and bruises on both man and beast like magic. I shall bequeath it with a small legacy to my grandson, Wilbur F. Requa, and hope that he will some day put it on the market. This is Sanspareil.
